| 518 - Data processing, hosting, and related services | 712 - Heritage institutions |

Under a broad definition of creative industries, which includes people who create new ideas, new technology and new creative content, Calgary is a leader in Canada. In many jurisdictions this definition results in the inclusion of engineers, architects, and scientific research professionals. While there is no doubt that these are creative, highly-skilled people, due to the high involvement of engineering in the energy sector in Calgary, this group of job categories is excluded from our Creative Industries analysis.
